Preface

As mandated by the Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI), India's top 1000 listed entities based on market capitalisation on the BSE and NSE, are required to submit a 'Business Responsibility Report' (BRR) along with their Annual Report for 2020-21. This report has been prepared in line with 'National Voluntary Guidelines on Social, Environmental and Economic Responsibilities of Business' (NVGs), as released by the Ministry of Corporate Affairs in July 2011.

Maharashtra Scooters Limited ('MSL', 'the Company'), to whom the said requirement became applicable for the first time in the financial year 2016-17, presents its Sixth BRR in line with the NVGs and the BRR requirement of SEBI. MSL is a Core Investment Company, not requiring registration with RBI and is a subsidiary of Bajaj Holdings and Investment Limited. The business responsibility performance of the Company is assessed annually by MSL's Board of Directors.

Principle 1: Businesses should conduct and govern themselves with Ethics, Transparency and Accountability

MSL endeavours to adopt high standards of corporate governance and adheres to all applicable guidelines. MSL's Code of Conduct for the Company's Directors and Senior Management (hosted on the website of the Company viz www.mahascooters.com) stipulates that "Directors and Senior Managers shall observe the highest standards of ethical conduct and integrity and shall work to the best of their ability and judgment". A declaration of the Directors and Senior Management's affirmation to this Code of Conduct is communicated to all stakeholders by the Chief Executive Officer in the Annual Report.

In order to enable individuals to report violations of the Code of Conduct, cases of suspected or actual fraud, unethical behaviour, etc., without the fear of victimisation, MSL has established a Vigil Mechanism. The Director / employee can address the complaint to any member of the Enforcement Committee along with the available details and evidence. Also, suitable measures are in place to ensure safeguards against victimisation for employees who report any unethical behaviour. The Directors in all cases and employees in appropriate or exceptional cases have direct access to the Chairman of the Audit Committee.

No stakeholder complaints linked to the Code of Conduct adherence were received during the reporting year.

Principle 2: Businesses should provide goods and services that are safe and contribute to sustainability throughout their life cycle

MSL is aware about the role that sustainability plays in an organisation's long-term success. The Company is committed to providing goods that are safe and which imbibe sustainability throughout their life cycle. To this end, MSL has adopted policies that guide its actions at every step.

The Company has an Environment Policy, which underlines its commitment to eco-friendly and energy efficient operations, conservation of natural resources and reduction of waste.

In addition, the Company has a Safety & Health Policy which highlights MSL's commitment to a safe and healthy working environment for its employees. Training and awareness is provided to employees at each level with an aim to improve their physical, mental and social well-being.

Principle 3: Businesses should promote the well-being of all employees

As of 31 March 2022, MSL had a total employee strength of 125, consisting of 53 permanent staff, 49 permanent workmen, 22 trainees and 1 person working on contract basis. The Company did not have any women or specially-abled employees in FY 2021-22. MSL has a recognised workmen union and 100 per cent of the daily rated employees are its members.

MSL considers its employees to be the greatest operational strength of the Company. It is committed to employee welfare and engages with them on a regular basis. The Company invests in the growth and development of all its employees through relevant trainings.

The Company did not receive any complaint regarding child labour, forced labour, involuntary labour or sexual harassment in FY 2021-22 and none is pending as of 31 March 2022.

Principle 4: Businesses should respect the interests of, and be responsive towards all stakeholders, especially those who are disadvantaged, vulnerable and marginalized

MSL is an equal opportunity employer and ensures that its remuneration practices are based on merit, irrespective of the person's ethnic background or gender. In addition, the Company practises affirmative action and ensures there is no discrimination of any type against socially disadvantaged sections at the work place.

Principle 5: Businesses should respect and promote human rights

MSL is compliant with all the applicable laws of the land that pertain to human rights and safeguards human rights of all its employees. The Company did not receive any complaint regarding violation of human rights in FY 2021-22.

Principle 6: Business should respect, protect, and make efforts to restore the environment

As a responsible organization, MSL is dedicated to conduct its activities in a manner that protects the environment. Furthermore, the Company has identified and assessed the potential environmental risks that it faces. With a view to mitigating these risks, MSL has an Environment Policy as well as an Energy Policy in place. These policies enable the Company to work towards ensuring optimum and effective utilization of natural resources in its operations. Utilization of solar energy for canteen operations, generation of biogas and production of vermi-compost from waste at the Company's plant in Satara are some of the examples of environmental initiatives undertaken by MSL.

The Company's facilities operate as per the 'Consent-to-Operate' provided by the State Pollution Control Board (SPCB) and are within permissible limits with regard to the emissions and waste generated. No show-cause notice was received from the Central Pollution Control Board (CPCB) or the SPCB in the reporting year.

Principle 7: Businesses, when engaged in influencing public and regulatory policy, should do so in a responsible manner.

MSL is a founding member of the Manufacturers Association of Satara. As an active member of the association, the Company participates in the relevant industry discussions.

Principle 8: Businesses should support inclusive growth and equitable development

MSL is committed to the overall development of the society, especially those who are disadvantaged. To this end, the Company has adopted a Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) Policy, which outlines the Company's responsibility as a corporate citizen and lays down the guidelines and mechanism for undertaking community welfare and sustainable development activities at large. This Policy applies to all CSR initiatives and activities taken up for the benefit of different segments of the society, specifically the deprived, under-privileged and differently abled persons.

The core element of CSR is the continuing commitment by business to ethical principles, protection of human rights and care for the environment, while improving the quality of life of all the stakeholders including the local community and society at large.

MSL has consciously decided to design and implement Social Investments / CSR programs for rural India that work towards economic empowerment through grass-root capacity building and enriching value chains that encompass the disadvantaged sections of society.

In the financial year 2021-22, the Company was required, under section 135 of the Companies Act 2013, to spend a sum of ₹ 22.11 lakh, being 2% of its average net profit during the last three (3) financial years.

During the reporting year, the Company participated in the mass vaccination drive in PMC, PCMC and other locations by providing 2 lakh vaccines for COVID-19. The Company spent ₹ 22.50 Lakh towards this initiative during the year.

For more information, refer to the Report on CSR activities as contained in the Annual Report 2021-22.

Principle 9: Businesses should engage with and provide value to their customers and consumers in a responsible manner

MSL believes in consistently achieving excellence in product quality. The Company's Quality Policy underlines its commitment to provide excellent quality products and services with the aim of 'Maximum Customer Satisfaction' through continuous improvements in quality. The Company manufactures dies and fixtures as per specific customer requirements and hence relevant product details are provided to customers over and above the requirements.

There are no pending customer complaints or cases regarding unfair trade practices, irresponsible advertising and /or anti-competitive behaviour pending as of 31 March 2022.
