Chairman's Letter

Dear Shareholder,

In April 2008, hardly anyone could have predicted what the global economy would turn out to be by 31 March 2009. If you recall, we began the year with one of the world's worst inflationary spirals since World War II. Today, it seems strange that in the first week of July 2008, the spot price of crude was quoting at above $144 per barrel, and pundits were talking of the imminent arrival of $200 oil. Nobody believed that the scourge of global inflation would suddenly disappear to make way for the worst economic downturn since the Great Depression.

Yet, it happened with a vengeance since the second half of September 2008, after the fall of Lehman Brothers. As I write this letter to you, the US, countries belonging to the European Union, the UK, Japan, Russia, China, India and others have already pumped in over $2.5 trillion worth of funds and government guarantees to support their economies and financial systems; and the G20 has promised another $1.1 trillion of support, including to the International Monetary Fund.

While such concerted action has put an end to the severe liquidity crunch and instability across global financial institutions, the crisis has spread to the real economy. Consider the facts:

- US GDP is expected to shrink by 2.7% in 2009. Its unemployment rate is at 8.5% (March 2009), and rising — the highest since the early 1980s. Between October 2008 and March 2009, net payroll employment has shrunk by over 3.5 million. And the job losses continue.
- The Euro Zone's GDP is likely to contract by 3.4% in 2009. Unemployment is already at 8.5%.
- GDP of the UK is forecast to reduce by 3.5% in 2009.

- Japan's GDP will most likely contract by a massive 6.5% in 2009. Thanks to lower global demand, industrial production was down by a staggering 38% in February 2009.
- China's growth rate has crashed. From heady double-digit rates, GDP growth in 2009 is expected to be 6%.
- And the World Trade Organisation estimates a shrinking of global trade by as much as 9% in 2009.

Simply put, 2008-09 has been one of the worst years for the global economy. And 2009-10 is unlikely to be better. Indeed, most experts believe that the real turnaround will occur only in calendar 2010 — probably from the April-June quarter.

India has not been immune to these tumultuous times. After three consecutive years of over 9% GDP growth in 2005-06, 2006-07 and 2007-08, quarterly growth rates have steadily fallen from the second half of 2007-08. GDP growth for 2008-09 is expected at somewhere between 6.5% and 7%, which would be some 200-250 basis points lower than the previous year. And the prospects are fairly grim for 2009-10, with estimates varying from a low of 5% to 6.5%.

To be sure, we are better off compared to the OECD countries: we are growing, albeit at a lower rate; they are shrinking. Besides, we are better insulated from the global scenario with domestic demand comprising 68% of our GDP. Even so, these are difficult times. A fall in demand growth translates to lower order books; lower capacity utilisation; and severe pressure on prices. The relatively worse performance of most manufacturing and service sector companies in the third and fourth quarters of 2008-09 reflect this reality.

The Indian automotive sector has been hit by the combined effect of a severe credit crunch and a fall in demand growth. The third quarter of 2008-09 was particularly fierce. Average monthly sales of motorcycles in India fell by over 17% in Q3 2008-09 versus Q2 — from an average of 524,939 units per month to 435,114.

Your company has been affected by this downturn.

- Net sales and other operating income fell by 2.6% to Rs.88.11 billion in 2008-09.
- Operating EBITDA was Rs.12.02 billion. The company continued earning a double-digit operating EBITDA margin: at 13.6% of net sales and other operating income for 2008-09, rising to 15.2% margin for the fourth quarter.
- Operating profit before tax (PBT) was Rs.8.46 billion, with an operating profit margin of 9.6% of net sales and other operating income.

In a difficult year, there have been some positive news. The first is Bajaj Auto's exports. During 2008-09, your company's exports achieved an all-time high of 772,519 units of two- and three-wheelers — representing a growth of 25% over the previous year. The growth was driven by the export of two-wheelers, which increased by 31% over 2007-08 to achieve sales of 633,463 units in 2008-09. Last year, too, I had expressed my satisfaction with our exports. Given the excellent performance for three successive years and the establishment of significant bridgeheads in many geographies, I feel confident that the company's products will continue to do well in international markets.

The second good development is that your company will be introducing upgraded Pulsar models in May 2009 and brand new models for the executive segment in the second quarter of 2009-10. With these, and the positive response to the XCD 135 cc which was introduced in February 2009, I expect sales to recover in 2009-10 — not to the levels seen in 2006-07, but better than most of 2008-09.

I would add another heartening news. Despite the severe contraction in your company's sales in 2008-09, it has been able to maintain healthy operating margins. Indeed, the fourth quarter saw a rise in the margin to 15.2% of net sales and other operating income. This has much to do with a better product mix, higher productivity and lower input costs. I wholeheartedly support the management focus on lower costs and greater profitability.

The path ahead is going to be challenging — that of growing sales without eroding profit margins in an economy which will be witnessing a 250 basis point drop in growth rates compared to the last four years. But I am confident that your company's management will deliver superior results in 2009-10. The building blocks are in place. With easier credit conditions, we can achieve growth with better profits.

My thanks to all employees of Bajaj Auto for their unstinting support, especially in hard times. And to you for being with us.

Management Discussion and Analysis

2008-09 has been a tumultuous year for the global economy. The year began with a continuation of a world-wide inflationary spiral and ended with the worst slowdown since the Great Depression of the 1930s. While India did not face a contraction in GDP growth like the USA, the Euro zone, the UK and Japan, it has witnessed a 250 basis point compression in growth rate — from 9% in 2007-08 to an expected 6.5% or thereabout in 2008-09.

The second half of 2008-09 has seen severe financial distress across broad sections of Indian industry — especially the manufacturing sectors. Companies have got re-rated; have scrapped investment plans and capital expenditure; cut down capacities; struggled with finances because of their earlier over-leveraged positions; delayed payments to vendors; and had to borrow funds at prohibitive interest rates.

It is in this context that one must look at the performance of Bajaj Auto Limited ('Bajaj Auto', 'BAL' or 'the Company'). Despite falling demand in the motorcycle segment, the company has succeeded in maintaining an operating EBITDA (earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortisation) margin of 13.6% of net sales and other operating income. In a situation where many companies

The salient features of Bajaj Auto's performance for 2008-09 are:

Highlights for 2008-09 versus 2007-08: Bajaj Auto Standalone

- Net sales (excluding excise duty) and other operating income fell by 2.6% to Rs.88.11 billion.
 - Exports of two-wheelers — mostly motorcycles — grew by 31% to 633,463 units.
 - Domestic sales of motorcycles (inclusive of excise duty) fell in value by 20% to Rs.46.59 billion; by volume, it was 1.28 million in 2008-09 — a fall of 23% over the previous year.
 - Despite a sharp decline in domestic sales of motorcycles, the company's operating EBITDA stood at Rs.12.02 billion. The operating EBITDA margin was 13.6% of net sales and other operating income for 2008-09, and recorded a 15.2% margin for Q4, 2008-09.
 - Operating profit before tax (PBT) fell by 16.4% to Rs.8.46 billion. This was largely due to a voluntary retirement scheme (VRS) of Rs.1.83 billion and mark-to-market losses of Rs.218 million. Even so, the operating profit margin was 9.6% of net sales and other operating income.
 - Surplus cash and cash equivalents in the company's balance sheet as on 31 March 2009 stood at Rs.9.33 billion.

are suffering from a severe financial crunch, Bajaj Auto remains debt free. Whereas many companies have been forced to delay payments to vendors, Bajaj Auto has gone the other way — helped its suppliers and dealers by offering improved payment terms. Instead of cutting back on investments, the company has proceeded with its business plans, including a spend of Rs.1.4 billion to raise its stake in the Austrian motorcycle company, KTM, from 24.45% to 31.72%. All this has occurred from Bajaj Auto's internal accruals.

As in earlier Annual Reports, this chapter moves on to markets, then to the company's sales across segments, then to operations, and finally to the financials.

Markets

Motorcycles: Overall

Two-wheeler sales of Indian players is dominated by the domestic market and, within it, by motorcycles. After growing at a sharp clip from the late 1990s, motorcycle sales witnessed a 7.8% drop in volume in 2007-08, due to falling domestic demand as a result of rising interest rates and many private sector banks reducing their retail lending exposures. 2008-09 saw a modest increase in motorcycle sales of 4%, driven largely by growth in cash sales. Even so, sales of motorcycles (both domestic and exports) in 2008-09 has been lower than what it was in 2006-07, before the slowdown hit this sector. Chart A depicts the data from 1998-99.

Chart A : Sales of two-wheelers (million units)

Despite the slight uptick in the industry's sales volume, Bajaj Auto did not maintain volume growth, for reasons that will be discussed below. From 1.66 million motorcycles in 2007-08, the company's domestic sales fell by 23% to 1.28 million units in 2008-09. Some of this was compensated by a 31% increase in exports to 631,383 units. But it was not enough. Consequently, Bajaj Auto's market share (domestic and exports, combined) fell from 32.7% in 2007-08 to 28% in 2008-09. Table 1 gives the data.

Motorcycles: Domestic Sales for the Industry

The company classifies motorcycles into three segments, based on consumer categories and approximate price points. These are:

a) Entry segment. These are typically 100 cc motorcycles at a price point in the neighbourhood of Rs.35,000. Bajaj Auto is in this segment through the Platina.

Here, Bajaj Auto has been a major player and, despite an overall market de-growth, accounted for 34% of this segment in India in 2008-09.

b) Executive segment. This largely comprises 100 cc to 135 cc motorcycles, priced between Rs.40,000 to Rs.50,000. We are in this segment with two brands: XCD and Discover.

- c) Performance segment. These are sleek, high performance, with price points in excess of Rs.50,000. We are present here with our flagship brand, the Pulsar, and our cruiser, the Avenger. We dominate this space, with a domestic market share in excess of 47%.

If the domestic motorcycle market is segregated as above, it becomes clear that industry sales showed significant ups and downs in 2008-09. Chart B plots the data for the industry as a whole.

Chart B : Domestic sales - Industry

The industry as a whole was growing at a fairly reasonable rate in the first half of the fiscal year. Average monthly sales during Q1 2008-09 was 3.3% higher than that of 2007-08; and in Q2 2008-09 it was 5.8% greater than the previous quarter.

Then came the hit in the third quarter, coinciding with the global financial meltdown and very sharp cutbacks in the availability of consumer and retail credit. As a result, overall domestic sales of motorcycles fell by over 17% in Q3 2008-09 versus Q2 — from an average of 524,939 units per month to 435,114.

Thankfully, there was a recovery in January to March 2009. Average monthly sales rose 12.7% in Q4 2008-09 compared to Q3. Even so, the Q4 sales were less than what the industry witnessed in Q2, or even Q1. Because of the third quarter effect, domestic sales of motorcycles for the industry as a whole grew by just 1.2% in terms of volume.

Motorcycles : Domestic Sales for Bajaj Auto

Using the three-fold classification described above, Chart C plots Bajaj Auto's domestic sales of motorcycles over 2008-09.

Chart C : Bajaj Auto's domestic sales (in units)

As with others in the industry, the company suffered from the Q3 effect. In that single quarter, Bajaj Auto's motor cycle sales by volume dropped by 37% — from an average of 130,800 units in Q2 2008-09 to 82,024 units in Q3. The sharpest drop was in the entry level segment, which fell from an average monthly sale of 49,807 units in Q2 to 17,147 units in Q3 — a reduction of 66% over two successive quarters.

The two other segments also showed declining sales, but nowhere near as sharply as the entry level.

There have been some signs of recovery since then. Thanks to an excellent launch of the XCD 135 cc in February and sales in excess of 21,000 units per month in the February and March 2009, the executive segment is back on the growth path. Demand for our Pulsars has also picked up, resulting in a 4% growth in the sales volume of our performance segment offerings in Q4 2008-09 compared to Q3. The full impact of the XCD 135 cc will be apparent in 2009-10; and this will be supplemented by our launch of the new Pulsar models in May 2009.

While the company commands a significant market share at the entry level segment (34% in 2008-09), its sale of Platina 100 cc showed a decline of almost 37% by volume. The sharp contraction of retail credit by Indian banks, especially to the relatively less well off, has been a significant factor in reduced sales in the aggregate as well as for Bajaj Auto. The silver lining is that since Platina is a low margin product, this substantial fall in growth has not proportionately reduced Bajaj Auto's operating EBITDA margins.

On the positive side, we have improved realisations in this segment through marketing initiatives, improved operations at our Pantnagar plant, as well as the launch of our Platina 125 DTS-Si with better margins. With financing support from Bajaj Auto Finance, we expect to at least hold on to the average monthly volumes of 2008-09 in the entry segment, if not grow them.

Bajaj Auto has not been a dominant player in the executive segment, where it accounted for under 18% market share in 2007-08. However, this fell to 15% in 2008-09 due to intense competition from the market leader and the fact that we did not have a major new offering in the category in the first three quarters of 2008-09.

With the successful introduction of the XCD 135 in February 2009, and the proposed launch of new models from Q2 2009-10, we hope to rectify this situation.

While it might be early to say, there are signs of a re-bound. In December 2008, Bajaj Auto's domestic sale of motorcycles hit a low of 61,546 units. It picked up to 66,207 in January 2009; then jumped to 90,473 in February thanks to the launch of the XCD 135 cc; and rose further to 92,947 units in March 2009. With the introduction of upgraded Pulsar models in May 2009 and brand new models planned for the executive segment in the second quarter of 2009-10, the company expects sales to recover in the course of the year.

Exports

The company continues to be the country's largest exporter of two- and three-wheelers. During 2008-09, Bajaj Auto' international sales achieved an all-time high of 772,519 units of two- and three-wheelers — representing a growth 25% over the previous year. The growth was driven by the export of two-wheelers, which increased by 31% over 2007-08 to achieve sales of 633,463 units in 2008-09. Table 2 gives the data.

Table 2: Bajaj Auto's exports (in numbers)

Product	2007-08	2008-09	Growth
Total two-wheelers	482,026	633,463	31 %
Three –wheelers	136,315	139,056	2 %
Total vehicles	618,341	772,519	25 %

The total value of exports was Rs.26.4 billion, representing a growth of 29%.

The business continues to enjoy a healthy geographical spread. Growth in 2008-09 was primarily driven by expanding Bajaj Auto's footprint in Africa and the Middle East, where the region's share rose from 30% of the export business in 2007-08 to 43% in 2008-09. The share of South Asia (excluding India) stands at 27%; South-East Asia at 11%; and Latin America at 19%.

The increased presence in Africa was primarily due to 91% growth in Nigeria — from approximately 75,000 two- and three-wheelers in 2007-08 to 143,500 units in 2008-09. In addition, there has been growth in sales in Angola, Uganda and Kenya. Sales in South Asia grew by 8%. The slowdown in Sri Lanka was more than compensated by a 47% growth in exports to Bangladesh. Despite the financial crisis, South-East Asia grew by 7%. The company's subsidiary in Indonesia, PT BAI, clocked sales in excess of 19,000 units. In the latter half of the year, it launched the XCD 125. The focus is on building the Pulsar brand throughout Indonesia.

Latin American sales commenced well at the beginning of 2008-09, but then got negatively affected by the global meltdown and sudden curtailing of bank finance. Consequently, the region clocked a negative growth of 5%. However, given Bajaj Auto's strong brand presence in these markets, it is expected that the company will be again able to ramp up the volumes as the markets ease.

As a part of the company's policy to be closer to the markets in which it operates, Bajaj Auto has offices in Monterrey (Mexico), Dubai and Colombo (Sri Lanka) in addition to its subsidiary PT BAI in Indonesia.

Three-wheelers

The company's domestic sales of three-wheelers in 2008-09 was 12% lower compared to the previous year, and stood at 135,473 units. Export demand grew at 2% to 139,056 units (see Table 2 above). However that was not sufficient to prevent a decline in the company's total three-wheeler sales — which fell by 5.4% to 274,529 units in 2008-09. Given that total industry sales shrank by 1.6% in 2008-09 over the previous year, while Bajaj Auto's fell by 5.4%, the company's market share dropped by 2.3 percentage points to 55.1%. At this market share, however, Bajaj Auto remains the leading three-wheeler player in India. Table 3 gives the data.

Source: SIAM and Company data

The heartening news for this segment is that state governments have increased the permits for plying energy efficient three-wheelers. Bajaj Auto has a market share in excess of 90% in the permit-driven markets. The company also intends to introduce a RE Diesel upgrade in 2009-10, which will have a high mileage, accommodate more passengers with a luggage hold area, and will attempt to capture a larger share of the rural market.

Spare parts

Automobiles need periodic replacement of parts. Not surprisingly, therefore, spare parts comprise a profitable business for major automobile manufacturers.

The objectives of spare parts business of Bajaj Auto are to perform an effective role in supporting new vehicle sales, maintain 'vehicle goodwill' across different geographies, makes and consumer groups, and contribute to the bottom-line. These translate into three goals:

- Make spare parts available to customer at all time.
- Make them affordable.
- Achieve profitable business growth and greater penetration.

The company's spare parts business has done well. Domestic sales of spare parts grew by 17.5% to achieve a revenue of Rs.5.88 billion in 2008-09. And exports rose by 84% to Rs.1.45 billion.

There is huge head room for further growth of this business. Even today, despite significant expansion of Bajaj Auto's authorised service network, more than 70% of the services during post-warranty period happens in the neighbourhood private garages. Hence, the challenge — and the business opportunity — is to make the company's spare parts available in not only the authorised service centres but also the private garages and spare part shops that dot the country. This is a high volume, credit intensive business that requires mastery over the supply of heterogeneous products. To do so, Bajaj Auto created a separate channel exclusively for distribution of spare parts in 2004-05. Today, the channel has 73 distributors, who cater directly to over 15,000 retail shops across the country. This channel now accounts for over 70% of total spare parts sales of BAL.

The results demonstrate the success of the channel; and the data suggests that there is still scope for significant growth.

Operations

Plants

Bajaj Auto's vehicle manufacturing capacity stands at 3.96 million units — comprising 3.6 million two-wheelers and 360,000 three-wheelers. The newest plant at Pantnagar (Uttarakhand) has a capacity to produce 900,000 two-wheelers. Table 4 gives the capacity data.

Table 4: Bajaj Auto's plant-wise capacities (in units)

Plant	2007-08	2008-09
Waluj	1,860,000	1,860,000
Chakan	1,200,000	1,200,000
Pantnagar	900,000	900,000
Total	3,960,000	3,960,000

As mentioned in last year's Annual Report, the company's first plant at Akurdi was shut down as a vehicle assembly unit from September 2007. The reason for doing so was the higher cost of manufacturing, which placed this location at a disadvantageous position compared to the other facilities of Bajaj Auto. On 25 July 2008, 2,331 workmen from Akurdi responded to a voluntary retirement scheme (VRS) offered by the company. The overall cost of this VRS was Rs.3.67 billion.

Pantnagar

Bajaj Auto's production at its state-of-the-art Pantnagar plant (Uttarakhand) has been on the rise. In 2007-08, the plant produced 276,925 motorcycles. This increased by 15% to 318,321 vehicles in 2008-09. By end-2008-09, Pantnagar was producing some 40,000 motorcycles per month. To maximise the tax benefits available at Uttarakhand, the company is shifting some of its more profitable products to the Pantnagar plant. After the shift of these products, the plant is expected to produce around 60,000 vehicles by the third quarter of 2009-10.

Table 5 gives the data on which products are manufactured in what plant.

R & D

In 2008-09, the R&D department has prepared for major upgrades across the company's product range. It has also enhanced its infrastructure for design, prototyping and testing. Two of the important products launched during 2008-09 are listed below.

Platina 125 cc DTS-si

Platina 125 cc DTS-si brings the twin spark technology with a special focus on fuel efficiency to the Platina model. The bike has an enhanced style as well as a new frame to accommodate the DTS-si engine. The engine manages to maintain the legendary fuel economy of the Platina while giving almost 30% more torque and 15% more power.

XCD 135 cc DTS-si

Bajaj Auto developed the XCD 135 cc DTS-si — a model that brings excitement and sportiness to the commuting world. Launched in February 2009, it has gained considerable acceptance in the market. The XCD 135 cc has several 150 cc features, which give it superior performance and value. The bike is powered by a 135cc DTS-si engine which gives over 10 bhp of power at 7,500 rpm; 1.18 kg-m of torque at 5,000 rpm; and does 0-60 kph in 8 seconds. Despite such power and torque, the XCD 135 DTS-si gives a fuel consumption of 55 km per litre — in the league of a 100cc engine while giving excellent overall drive feel.

This bike also brings together features like starter motor, five-speed gear box, split LED tail lamps, Digital speedo with stepper motor controlled tachometer, nitrogen filled shock absorbers, fat rear tyres and a front disc brake, DC ignition and DC head lamps. These features make the XCD 135 cc DTS-si a very up market product at extremely affordable prices.

In 2009-10, the company proposes to launch two new models of Pulsar, including the 220 cc variant, as well as new models to attack the ‘middle of the market’ in the deluxe commuter segment. In addition, it is working on a new 135 cc model plus a new version of the Avenger.

The ‘Lite’ range of Bajaj Auto’s four-wheeler vehicles, both in the passenger and cargo segments, are under re-design to sharpen the competitive positioning of the products. The cargo version is expected to be launched in 2011.

The techno-economic feasibility for the proposed passenger car will be evaluated by Bajaj Auto, Renault and Nissan for a final decision — which will lead to firming up the cooperation parameters among the partners and a suitable Joint Venture agreement.

R&D has been also focusing on expanding its design and testing teams. It has enhanced its digital computational capabilities along with the ability to prototype and test the products to even higher standards. This has enabled Bajaj Auto to design and produce ready-to-manufacture prototypes for the new generation products.

In addition, advanced machines have been installed in the prototype shop to enable quick and precise building and inspection of parts. Moreover, the testing areas have been enhanced with special equipments to enable performance and durability testing from component to full assembly — resulting in end-to-end self sufficiency of R&D department.

Subsidiaries

Bajaj Auto International Holdings BV (BAIH BV)

As mentioned last year, a 100% Netherlands based subsidiary of Bajaj Auto (Bajaj Auto International Holdings BV) was formed to focus on international ventures, including possible acquisitions. In 2007-08, BAIH BV invested €98.36 million (Rs.5.68 billion) to acquire a 24.45% equity stake in KTM Power Sports AG of Austria, Europe's second largest sport motorcycle manufacturer. With products such as Motocross, Supermoto, Enduro and on-road bike products like the Super Duke, KTM is a strong brand in Europe and the USA. It is a Vienna Stock Exchange listed company.

In the course of 2008-09, BAIH BV increased its ownership of KTM's shares to 31.72% at a cost of €21.26 million.

PT Bajaj Indonesia (PT BAI)

PT BAI was incorporated in 2006-07 as a subsidiary in Indonesia with an issued and subscribed capital of US$ 12.5 million (Rs.562 million). Bajaj Auto holds 97.5% shares in PT BAI, with the balance being held by the local partner.

The subsidiary assembles and markets Pulsars in Indonesia. During 2008-09, the XCD was also launched through PT BAI. Being in the early stages of market development and given that it assembles semi-knocked down parts at higher customs duties, PT BAI has not yet broken even. However, Bajaj Auto plans to move into assembling of completely knocked down parts in the latter half of 2009-10 — which will attract lower duties — and also expand PT BAI's product portfolio. Given the nature of the business, especially that of garnering a significant market presence in a new and highly competitive market, the gestation period is expected to be long.

Foreign Exchange Transactions

The Board of Directors of Bajaj Auto has approved the company's foreign exchange management and risk policy. In line with this policy, Bajaj Auto covers its foreign exchange exposure only in the currency in which it transacts the underlying export business. Thus, it does not enter into any cross-currency derivative contracts.

Given the rising trend of the Indian rupee in the second half of 2007-08, Bajaj Auto had taken a forward cover for part of its exports at an average rate of Rs.40.27 = USD 1 for the whole of 2008-09. At this average rate, the company covered its budgeted costs and profits. However, with the rupee depreciating sharply starting from April 2008, Bajaj Auto lost an opportunity to make extra profits on the treasury side. This opportunity cost was Rs.2.91 billion.

For the next year, i.e. 2009-10, the company has entered into a Range Forward-Options Contract. What this means is that if the rupee remains within the range, the company will get the benefit of the spot rate. For example, for a Range Forward-Options Contract of Rs. 47 to Rs. 57 per USD, if the rupee goes below Rs. 47 to a dollar, the company gains by being protected at Rs.47 = USD 1. However, if it weakens and goes above Rs.57 to a dollar, the company loses the difference. These are zero cost options.

Operating Working Capital

Table 7 gives Bajaj Auto's operating working capital. In the cash strapped situation of H2 2008-09, the management consciously took a call to support its vendors, by significantly reducing payment cycle. This, and the rise in export debtors, shows up in an increase in operating working capital as at 31 March 2009.

Schedule 14 - Notes forming part of financial statements (Contd.)

Notes:

- (a) Licensed Capacity is stated as per the Original License held by the erstwhile Bajaj Auto Ltd. (pre-merger). However, the company's products are exempt from Licensing requirements under New Industrial Policy in terms of notification no. s.o. 477 (E) dated 25th July, 1991.
- (b) As certified by the President (Engg) and being a technical matter, accepted by the Auditors as correct.
- 9) Significant Accounting Policies followed by the company are as stated in the Statement annexed to this schedule.
- 10) Changes in Accounting Policies
- a) Voluntary Retirement:
The company had announced a Voluntary Retirement Scheme (VRS) on 19 July 2008 for the workmen of its Akurdi plant. The scheme was open till 25 July 2008. In response to the VRS, 2331 workmen opted for the same. Upto previous year, expenditure incurred on voluntary early separation was entirely expensed to Profit and Loss Account in the year of retirement. The company has this year decided to recognise such expenditure aggregating to Rs. 3,666 million over a period of two years in line with the option of the special transitional provision introduced in the Accounting Standard - 15 "Employee Benefits" allowing such expenditure to be deferred for recognition over the payback period but not extending beyond 1st April 2010. Accordingly, the company has recognised a charge for the year of Rs. 1,833 million and the balance Rs. 1,833 million will be recognised as an expense in the subsequent year.
- b) Instruments acquired to hedge highly probable forecast transaction:
In order to recognise the impact of fluctuation in foreign currency rates arising out of instruments acquired to hedge highly probable forecast transaction, in appropriate accounting periods, the company has from this year decided to apply the principles of recognition set out in the Accounting Standard 30 - Financial Instruments-Recognition and Measurement (AS-30) as suggested by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India.
- Accordingly, the unrealised loss (net) consequent to foreign currency fluctuations, in respect of effective hedging instruments, represented by simple forward covers, to hedge future exports, were carried as a Hedging Reserve, during the year, and to be ultimately set off in the profit and loss account when the underlying transaction arises, as against the past practice of recognising the losses, in respect of such derivatives, in the profit and loss account at the end of each period determined with reference to the foreign exchange rates at the close of the period. However, the amount outstanding in the hedge reserve at the close of the year is Rs. Nil.
- The company has also, during the year, entered into range forward contracts to hedge highly probable forecast transactions, where the export realisations of the company are protected below a minimum pre-determined foreign exchange rate whereas the realisation advantages are available to the company there from up to a higher pre-determined foreign exchange rate. Though these instruments meet the management's Foreign exchange risk management objectives, they do not meet the test of effectiveness as per the principles of hedge accounting. Hence valuation losses aggregating Rs. 218 million, have been recognised in the profit and loss account.
- 11) Transfer of some of the titles to the assets vested with the company consequent to the Scheme of arrangement (de-merger) could not, where necessary, be transferred, as at 31st March 2009 pending adjudication of stamp duty. Hence the same were held in trust for the company by Bajaj Holdings and Investment Ltd.

12) Investments:

- a. Fixed Income Securities transferred to and vested with the company, consequent to the demerger of erstwhile bajaj auto ltd. were as per the scheme of arrangement (de-merger) recognised at their fair market values, where the carrying cost on 1st April 2007 was higher. The resulting diminution (net of deferred tax aggregating Rs. 323.7 million) amounting to Rs. 903.6 million, as per the said scheme, was provided for by a debit to the General Reserve.
- b. Investments made by the company other than those with a maturity of and those intended to be held for less than one year, being of long-term nature, diminution in the value of quoted Investments are not considered to be of a permanent nature. On an assessment of non-performing investments (quoted and unquoted) as per guidelines adopted by the company during the period ended 31st March 2009, the management has determined further provisions for possible diminution / losses aggregating Rs. 25.0 million during the year.
- c. PT. Bajaj Auto Indonesia (PT. BAI), a subsidiary of the company, in which the company holds 97.5%, has registered accumulated losses which exceed its paid-up capital. The company thru PT. BAI made a foray into the Indonesian market, which is very competitive but promising. Considering the challenges in setting up an appropriate dealer and service network, creation of brand awareness, appropriate tie ups with finance agencies, understanding customer behavior and preferences, in addition to setting up an assembly plant, the gestation period is expected to be long but eventually profitable. Hence diminution in the value of the investments made in PT. BAI are not considered to be of a permanent nature and hence no provisions are required to be made in this regard, as per the policy followed by the company, at this point of time.

- 13) Liability for employee benefits has been determined by an actuary, appointed for the purpose, in conformity with the principles set out in the accounting standard 15 (Revised) the details of which are as hereunder.
